

Putting a barrier between patient and equipment

The hydrophobic high efficiency Pall BB25 filter has been tested to retain liquid-borne human pathogenic organisms and puts a barrier between patient and equipment*.

The products advertised within this infographic may not have been licensed in accordance with local regulatory laws. Please check with the local Pall office for availability. *data on file

